Kentucky REALTORS® hires Education and Real Estate Industry Coordinator

Lexington, KY (5/2/2019) – Kentucky REALTORS® (KYR) announces that Jenny Dixon has been hired as the Education and Real Estate Industry Coordinator. Her first day with KYR will be May 6th. She brings with her a strong background in customer service and event coordination.

Jenny comes to KYR from Dean Dorton in Lexington, KY where she worked most recently as a Human Resources Specialist. In this role, she conducted reference checks and benefits orientations for new hires, maintained personnel records, and coordinated meetings. She also maintained the department's budget and ran weekly productivity reports.

Jenny also previously worked as special events coordinator for Alltech in Nicholasville, KY, and as assistant Registrar for Sullivan University in Lexington. She received her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Marketing as well as a master's degree in Human Resource Management.

“We are delighted to welcome Jenny to our team”, said Steve Stevens, Kentucky REALTORS® C.E.O. “She brings many talents and new energy that will benefit our organization greatly as we continue to expand our work to more areas of the real estate profession, as well as our continuing strong support of Realtor members.”

Jenny's role at KYR will be to report to the Director of Education on Kentucky Realtor Institute-focused duties and to assist with allied industry collaborative projects and as coordinator for a new commercial real estate program.

Kentucky REALTORS® is one of the largest and most influential associations in Kentucky. Founded in 1922, Kentucky REALTORS® represents more than 11,000 REALTORS® who are involved in all aspects of real estate, including residential and commercial real estate brokers, sales agents, developers, builders, property managers, office managers, appraisers and auctioneers.
