

KYR Legislative Update – 1/26/2026

The Kentucky REALTORS® Advocacy Week is coming up, and the registration window closes TONIGHT at 11:59 PM. As a REALTOR® you will not want to miss out on this opportunity! Mark your calendar for February 4 as members of the real estate industry from across Kentucky gather at the Capitol in Frankfort. It's a valuable opportunity to come together, strengthen our collective voice, and showcase our unwavering commitment to the real estate profession.

You can view our finalized schedule for this event at Legislative Meeting Schedule. We have an excellent opportunity to support RPAC and network with fellow members at the Sip, Sip, Soirée event at Malone's Prime Reception and Events!

We can't wait to join you in Frankfort and Lexington next week as we stand together to elevate our message and champion the future of real estate in Kentucky!

KYR Legislative Bill Tracker 2025 Legislative Priorities

The third week of the legislative session has brought significant activity, as the Legislative Quick Response Team continues to assess several bills with potential implications for Kentucky's real estate sector. During the third week of session, numerous bills began progressing into their respective committees – among them several high-priority items for KYR. While the team did not support or oppose any recently introduced legislation, they have voted to monitor nine newly introduced bills impacting the real estate industry. The QRT will continue to monitor and address legislation throughout the session. As always, you can view the up-to-date Bill Tracker on the Kentucky REALTORS® website!
