

KYR Legislative Update – 1/19/2026

The Kentucky REALTORS® Legislative Meetings and Hill Day are fast approaching, and we're excited to see you there! Save the date for February 4th as REALTORS® from across Kentucky assemble in Frankfort for this influential event. It's a powerful opportunity to unite, elevate our collective voice, and demonstrate our steadfast dedication to the real estate profession.

Please find the finalized schedule at Legislative Meeting Schedule. We have an exciting social event planned for RPAC – Sip, Sip, Soirée!! Join us on Tuesday, February 3rd, at 6:30 PM at Malone's Prime Reception and Events in Lexington for an exciting night. This is a great opportunity to connect, network with colleagues, and advance the RPAC mission.

We look forward to seeing you in Frankfort and Lexington this February as we unite to amplify our voices and bolster support for the future of real estate in Kentucky!

QRT News

KYR Legislative Bill Tracker 2025 Legislative Priorities

The second week of the legislative session has been highly active, with the QRT reviewing various legislative proposals affecting the Kentucky real estate industry. The team has recognized many important pieces of legislation to monitor and has voted to support one newly introduced bill: HB356. Additionally, the QRT has voted to oppose two additional bills. These actions align with our organization's purpose to further the real estate industry, support our members, and benefit all Kentuckians. This advancement depicts our commitment to advancing a strong real estate industry, and the QRT will continue to monitor and address legislation throughout the session. As always, you can view the up-to-date Bill Tracker on the Kentucky REALTORS® website!

Supported Bills (1):

HB356 (Bridges, R)
